Hector, Cat About Town Notorious Gossip

Teacher: Now, children, who can tell me what a lake is?
Jimmie McFadden: "Plaze, Miss, it do be a howl in the bottom of a tay-kittle."

"Why don't you let the child walk if he wants to?"
"What! With his best boots on?"

"That's a queer pair of stockings you have on, Pat—one red and the other green."
"Yes, and I've got another pair like it at home."

Lady: "Does my hat bother you?"
Gentleman (in rear): "Oh, no, but it certainly bothers my wife. She wants one like it."

"All of the artists say Miss Fiddlebow is the best model in town."
"Yes, I heard she held one position six months."

Mr. McTavish (to commercial traveller): "No, I'm telling ye, man, for the last time, and I dinna ken why I'm pestered all day by travellers."
Salesman: "Well, sir I can tell you that. You see, the commercial travellers' college down the road use you as lesson six, called 'approaching the hopeless client!'"

"This town is so unsocial; I have lived here six months and had no callers."
"My dear, you straighten your house and dress too early in the day. Just try leaving morning papers about, leaving your nose unpowdered, and wearing an old house dress and stockings with runs!"

Jimmie: "Dad, I was just thinking that when I get big I am going to go east; and since the world is round, I think I'll start going west and reach the east that way."
Father: "Oh, son, I wouldn't decide on being a taxi driver this early in life."

"I eat seven eggs this morning. Of course you mean 'ate'."
"Well, maybe it was eight."

Wife (looking over travel folders): "Why not take an ocean cruise this summer, dear?"
Husband: "Hm-m, beggars can't be crusiers."

SERIOUS CLASH IN GREECE

Railway Men Proclaim Sympathy Strike

(Hong Kong Daily Press Special)
Athens, May 10.
Railway men in northern Greece have proclaimed a sympathy strike in support of the tobacco workmen who, as previously reported, went on strike in Salonica. A serious clash occurred between the troops and a body of some 20,000 strikers, the latter being finally dispersed with the help of armoured cars.
The General commanding the 3rd Army Corps has personally undertaken the task of restoring order, but the situation, so far, has not been cleared up.—

CHAPLIN IN A HURRY

Leaves Colony On Return To States

Charlie Chaplin left Hong Kong on Saturday in a race against time. To comply with the United States immigration laws he has to be back by the end of June and he wants to spend a month in Japan. Before he stepped on the Kasima Maru on Saturday afternoon accompanied by Miss Pauline Goddard, his leading lady in "Modern Times" and Mrs. Goddard, Chaplin explained that he was still regarded as an alien in the United States as he had not lost his British nationality.

"I am allowed six months absence under the American immigration laws," he said. "and if I overstay that time I have to get a special permit."
The world-famed screen comedian disclosed that while on his recent tour of the Netherlands East Indies and Indo-China he had begun a script for Miss Goddard. Directed by himself, it will deal with life in the East, he said. He expected production to begin almost as soon as he returned to Hollywood.
Chaplin will spend about a month in Japan. After the completion of Miss Goddard's film he intends going to England and may return to Hollywood via the Orient.

SIXTY YEARS IN PRISON

Millionaire's Son Kidnapping

WOMAN ALSO IN THE CASE

Tacoma, Wash., May 9.
The ex-convict, William Mahan, has been sentenced to sixty years imprisonment for his share in the kidnapping in May last year of George Weyerhaeuser, nine-year-old son of the millionaire. He was also sentenced to sixty years imprisonment concurrently for using federal mails for the purpose of fraud in connection with the collection of the ransom money.
Mahan was arrested in San Francisco on Thursday when $7,300 alleged to be part of the $200,000 paid as ransom money for Weyerhaeuser was found in his possession.
Mr. and Mrs. Walsey have already been sentenced to forty five years imprisonment in connection with the same kidnapping case.—

WEDDING OF MISS
RUTH PRIMROSEPRESENT FROM KING
AND QUEEN MARY

London, April 24.

The King and Queen Mary have sent Miss Ruth Primrose, granddaughter of the Earl of Derby, a white feather fan on the occasion of her marriage to the Hon. Charles Wood, son of Viscount Halifax, which takes place to-morrow in St. Paul's Cathedral.

The Duke of Kent has given the bridegroom a pair of gold cuff-links, and the Princess Royal and the Earl of Harewood have sent an antique French clock.

Capt. Bullock (stepfather of the bride) and Miss Priscilla Bullock have given a diamond brooch as a joint gift, and Capt. Bullock has also given a settee and arm-chairs, and Miss Bullock racehorse pictures.

The bride's gift to the bridegroom is a fitted dressing-case, and the bridegroom's to the bride a diamond and emerald watch.

The Earl of Derby has given his granddaughter, among other things, household linen, and the Countess of Derby's personal gift is a bracelet set with diamonds.

From the bridegroom's parents, Viscount and Viscountess Halifax, there is a William and Mary chest, a William and Mary cabinet, a Sheraton roll-top desk and a red lacquer cabinet; with a double string of pearls to the bride. The Hon. Anne Wood and her brothers have given a riding whip, and the Earl and Countess of Rosebery a double fox fur.

ELUCIDATION OF PEACE
PROPOSALSBritish Questionnaire To Germany

("Hong Kong Daily Press" Special)

Berlin, May 8.

The text of the letter of the British Foreign Secretary, Eden to the British Ambassador in Berlin, Sir Eric Phipps, and which contains the British Government's questions for elucidation of several points in Hitler's peace proposals, has now been published here.

The document, which as previously reported, is in the hands of Foreign Minister von Neurath, is couched in friendly terms, and its contents may be summarized as follows:

(1) The British Government wishes to know, whether the German Government is now in a position to conclude effective treaties, it being pointed out that all treaty negotiations would be aimless, if one party might subsequently claim the liberty to repudiate its obligations on the grounds that it had previously not been in the position to conclude a binding agreement.

(2) The British Government wishes to be informed whether Germany is now in a position to declare that she recognises and intends to respect the present existing territorial and political order in Europe, in so far as this order may not be changed at a later date by means of freely negotiated agreements.

(3) The British Government would regret a decision to the effect that no attempt should be made to attain regional limitations of air armaments simultaneously with the conclusion of the western air pact and it hopes that the German Government concurs with it on this point.

NON-AGGRESSION PACT

(4) The British Government welcomes the German Government's suggestion for a non-aggression pact between Germany on one side and France, Belgium and possibly Holland on the other, as well as the German proposal for non-aggression pacts between Germany and the States on her south-eastern and north-eastern frontiers. The British Government would, however, like to be informed whether these pacts may be guaranteed by pacts of mutual assistance.

(5) In view of the declaration that Germany is willing to re-enter the League of Nations, the British Government feels justified in assuming that the question of conformity of the proposed non-aggression pacts with the obligations as a League member will present no difficulties and that these pacts will be consummated within the framework of the League.

(6) The general European settlement would be considered facilitated if the German Government found it possible to interpret the words "States on Germany's South-eastern and North-eastern frontiers" in such a manner as to include the Soviet Union, Latvia and Estonia.

ARBITRATION COURT

(7) Germany proposed the constitution of an International Court of Arbitration which was to be competent in respect to observing the various agreements. It would be desirable to know what, generally speaking, would be the duties and composition of the proposed Court of arbitration and in what relation its duties would stand to those of the League of Nations and the Permanent Courts at The Hague.

(8) In view of Germany's announcement that she is prepared to re-enter the League of Nations, the German Government will doubtless be prepared to define her future attitude towards the Permanent Court of Justice at The Hague.

The British Foreign Secretary's letter concludes with the remark that the present questions are not exhaustive and that the other problems likewise must be faced later. Before the question of Germany's return to the League of Nations comes up, the British Government is sure that the German Government will deem it necessary to furnish a further explanation concerning the words "separation from the League Covenant and from its Versailles basis."—

Feeling Tired?

You can feel fit again—and so easily too!

Listlessness and fatigue, in nine cases out of ten, are caused by nervous trouble, and when you take Sanatogen you drink in pure strength.

Heat, worry or overwork — these are just some of the many reasons why you are suffering from over-strained nerves. Unless you find extra strength to withstand the strain, loss of youth and health is bound to be the result.

Sanatogen was made to strengthen the nerves, to revitalize tired, run-down people. To thousands, the use of Sanatogen has meant a new lease of life.

Here is the opinion of a lady, who suffered for years:—

"It is years, since I felt so well and happy. I was full of pain and depression through indigestion and nervousness, but now, through Sanatogen, the world and all that is in it, is brighter and more cheerful."

— writes Miss G. H.

Think of how much better life would be if you could once more enjoy that priceless feeling of youthful health, and if you were again full of energy and cheerfulness. And such health is really within easy reach. You need not go to a lot of trouble. Simply start taking Sanatogen three times a day and you will soon pick up.

You will notice how quickly Sanatogen satisfies the starved nervous system, how it conquers that run-down feeling. You will feel better and you will look better. You will feel a new woman, full of youthful vitality, and your friends will tell you "How well you look."

PADGHAM'S GOLF VICTORY

Southport, May 8. Alfred Padgham of Sundridge Park, to-day showed that at present he is definitely the best British medal player by winning the £1,600 Dunlop Golf tournament, the third big competition of the season.

Padgham returned cards of 71, 74, 70, and a brilliant 67, to aggregate 282.

R. Burton of Hooton finished second with scores of 72, 71, 68 and 73, equals 284, while W. J. Cox of Wimbledon Park was third with 69, 72, 73, and 72, totalling 286, and Syd. Easterbrook of Knowle claimed fourth position with 72, 74, 75, and 68, totalling 287. Easterbrook's last round of 68 equalled the course record.

ADMIRALTY ORDERS LAND-SEA PLANES

FIRST BOAT-HULLED AIRCRAFT NAVY HAS HAD SINCE THE WAR

London, April 23. After more than a year's successful experience with an amphibious aircraft in the battleship Nelson, the Admiralty has placed a substantial order to the makers, the Supermarine Aviation works, for these aircraft to replace existing types of seaplanes, now attached to catapult-equipped warships.

The machine is the Supermarine Walrus. It is the first boat-hulled marine aircraft to go into service with the Navy since the war. Hitherto, only landplanes and float seaplanes have been used.

The boat-hull is better suited for alighting and taking-off from rough water, and, of course, great advantage is gained from the amphibious gear. Swift communication between sea and shore is made possible.

LANDING GEAR PULLED UP
Several times in the past year the Commander-in-Chief of the Home Fleet has flown from the English Channel direct to Hendon aerodrome in Nelson's amphibian in order to make personal visits to the Admiralty.

The Walrus has a single engine of approximately 750 h.p. The amphibious landing gear is drawn up, when the machine is in flight, into recesses in the under surfaces of the lower wings. After alighting on water it can be taxied by the pilot, out of the water and straight up the slipway without any outside assistance.

Returning to its parent ship, it is hoisted out of the water and placed on the catapult ready for the next launching.

PASSING OF A HOTEL

London, April 23. The centre of London's hotel life appears to be moving further west, for, following upon the disappearance of the Cecil from the Strand a few years ago, the once famous and fashionable Metropole in Northumberland Avenue closed its doors to-day. In the case of the Cecil it was big business which took over the site, which in this latest instance it is the requirements of official Whitehall which are to be met. After breakfast this morning the few and faithful

REGENCY COUNCIL IN EGYPT

Cairo, May 8.
The new Cabinet unanimously approved the Regency Council, consisting of Prince Mohamed Ali, second son of the late Khedive, Azizogget Pasha, former Minister to London, and Cherifsbri Pasha, brother of the Queen.

The Council will rule for twenty-one months, until King Farouk is eighteen years of age, when he will attain his majority according to Mohammedan tradition.
The Council is entirely different from that nominated by King Fuad in 1922, the names of which were contained in a sealed envelope which was opened and read in the Chamber.

U.S. NAVY BILL

Washington, May 8.
The Senate to-day passed the Naval Supply Bill, after rejecting by 40 to 12 an amendment moved by Senator Frazier to strike out the section appropriating $115,300,000 ($230,600,000) for the construction of two battleships, six submarines and twelve destroyers.

The Bill was returned to the House of Representatives with the Senate's amendments.
The two new battleships will be constructed only in the event of any other signature to the London Naval Treaty laying down battleships. It is known that Great Britain intends to build two new battleships in 1937.

GREEN TEA TRADE RESUMED

No Settlement Reached Over Monopoly Question

Shanghai, May 6.

While negotiations are being continued for a settlement of the dispute between the fourteen tea hongs and the Anhwei Provincial Government over the monopoly scheme, the owners have decided to resume financial transactions on green tea beginning to-day.

A large quantity of the product already has arrived in Shanghai.

The decision was made yesterday, following the persuasion of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce, the Shanghai City Government, and other organizations. Whether the hongs will call off the strike and resume financial transactions on Keemun tea will depend on the outcome of the negotiations.

Mr. Chien Chen-shu, who was sent to Nanjing and Anhwei by the National Associated Chambers of Commerce and the China Industrial Federation to submit a petition to the authorities, is expected to return here to-day.

It is understood that he has suggested the formation of an export firm with two-thirds of its capital subscribed by tea hongs as a measure for a settlement of the dispute. (N.C.D.N.)

PULLERS SUPPORT P.M.A.

28,000 Subscribe To Letter To Council

Shanghai, May 6.

The latest development in the rickshaw question has come in the form of a letter sent yesterday to the Rikshaw Board of the Shanghai Municipal Council by 28,004 rickshaw pullers to say that they are willing to pay their contributions to the Rikshaw Pullers' Mutual Aid Association.

The letter, which contains the finger-prints, names and license numbers of the pullers, follows efforts made by the rickshaw owners to discover whether the pullers were willing to pay their contributions to the association to which the majority of owners are opposed. (N.C.D.N.)

"BROADWAY GONDOLIER"

Movie makers feel proud when they have one song hit in a screen musical. Now Warner Bros. come forward with a picture in which no less than six songs are confidently expected to become outstanding hits.

The picture is "Broadway Gondolier," which is showing at the Star Theatre to-day. Powell and Joan Blondell, popular stars of "Gold Diggers of 1933" are reunited, together with Adolphe Menjou and Louise Fazenda they head the all star cast.

In addition to the singing of the popular Dick Powell, the catchy airs of Warren and Dubin are ably presented by three groups of radio favorites, the Four Mills Brothers, Ted Flotito with his nationally famed orchestra, and the Canova Family.

"Lonely Gondolier" is a plaintive melody which Powell sings in both English and Italian and he also sings the luring "Rose in Her Hair" in both languages.

"Outside of You" and "You Can Be Kissed" are two other Warren and Dubin songs headed for "best sellers" divisions, and "The Cow and The Pig and The Duck" is already being hailed as an outstanding kiddie song.

To round out the wide assortment of melodies in the picture, "Lulu's Back in Town" is presented as a low-down "hot" number and as it is rendered by the Four Mills Bros. and Ted Flotito's Orchestra, it is bound to score high with the music public.

The "four boys and a guitar" also deliver a toe-tickling version of "Sweet Lucy Brown," which they have already made famous on national network programmes.

"MODERN TIMES"

After an absence of almost five years, the one and only Charlie Chaplin returned to the screen of the King's Theatre to-day in his long-awaited comedy, "Modern Times." The occasion proved well worth waiting for. Time has not altered his genius. Charlie Chaplin is still the world's funniest comedian.

Far more pretentious than any of his previous pictures, "Modern Times" is also definitely Chaplin's funniest and last night's audience laughed as we have not heard an audience laugh since "City Lights." Charlie's previous film, was released almost five years ago.

Continuing to shun the "talkies" and relying upon novel synchronized sound effects, Charlie once again proves that he does not require dialogue.

"Modern Times" offers a generous supply of the most novel and hilarious situations Chaplin has ever concocted. One of the highlights of the film is the scene in which Charlie does an unusual routine in pantomime. In this scene, which is the only one in the film which was shot directly in sound, Chaplin adopts his own "musical language" to film in a highly original and interesting way and the result is one of the funniest sequences ever flashed on a screen. In addition to writing, directing, producing and starring in "Modern Times," Chaplin also wrote the music and cut the film. The comedy, in which such old familiar faces as Chester Conklin, Henry Bergman and Hank Mann play important roles, is released, through United Artists, Carter de Haven helped direct.

FRIENDLY CRICKET

One Game Played

King Willow is not yet ousted from his throne. The Diocesan Boys' School, the nursery of so many of our local cricketers, met an eleven captained by B. D. Lay, one of the Old Boys, in a friendly match on Saturday on the School ground.

Though the match ended in a draw, some very bright cricket was seen. K. M. Baxter of the Central British School, made "hay" and compiled an enterprising score of 52, which included one five and six boundaries. A. Zimmern, another D. B. S. Old Boy, scored a nice thirty before retiring.

F. J. Lay was the highest scorer for the School which score included six boundaries. Partnered by W. J. Lau who scored 29, these two batsmen were instrumental in saving the School when its position was not very sound.

The bowling honours were evenly divided. K. M. Baxter again coming into the limelight with the best returns of three wickets for eighteen runs.

The scores were:—

WITHOUT REGRET

Appearing in "Without Regret" in support of Miss Landi and Paul Cavanagh are Kent Taylor and Francis Drake, the male and female "menaces." In the story, Miss Landi is seen as a woman torn between two loves in her latest characterization. Having met and married a handsome aviator scoundrel after a one-day whirlwind courtship in China, she later marries a distinguished successful London Doctor. (Paul Cavanagh) believing her first husband killed in a plane wreck. When the jealous ex-sweetheart of her first husband tells her that he is alive and demands black-mail for her silence in the possession of Miss Landi's love letters, and threatens to expose the whole bigamous scandal which will mean the ruin of Miss Landi's home and her husband's career.

Close on the heels of this revelation, Kent Taylor, the aviator husband, makes his presence known by seeking medical advice from Paul Cavanagh the physician husband. Many tense, exciting situations follow as Francis Drake the jilted sweetheart, battles for Taylor's love, Miss Landi battles for her letters, and Taylor battles for both her love and the letters.

Murder, mystery, romance and adventure all play an exciting part in this deeply moving, and soul stirring drama of a woman who found she had to pay for one gay marital escapade. Herold Young directed.

"Without Regret" is being shown to-morrow at the Queen's Theatre.

CHARITY CONCERT

IN AID OF SCHOOL FUND

Under the patronage of the Portuguese Consul, Dr. Alvaro Brilhante Laborinho and with the assistance of her pupils and the dramatic amateurs of Liga Portuguesa and other local artists, Miss Maria Gomes F.T.C.L. will give a concert in aid of "Caixa Escolar" (Portuguese Poor Children's School Fund) at Club de Recreio on the 22nd instant commencing at 9.00 p.m.

Miss Maria Gomes, as it is known, is one of most successful music teachers in the Colony. Since her arrival, she has won great admiration of many music lovers and her students, among them special mention could be made of Misses Marie Alves and Irene Ung, who obtained the Licentiate Diploma through her guidance and Miss Edris d'Aquino (now Mrs. M. Carvalho) who, after only four months' training in the capable hands of Miss Gomes, was enabled to sustain a complete programme of songs with which she delighted a packed gathering at the Club de Recreio on the occasion of her first debut before the public and who became later the star artist of the play "Madame Jette."

MISS ALVES TO TAKE PART

Miss Elsa Alves, the well-known local soprano, who was presented at an International Concert organized by Lady Southorn at the Government House sometime ago was also one of Miss Maria Gomes' successful pupils and has been the recipient of many congratulations from her admirers throughout the Far East for her beautiful singing over the radio.

Miss Maria Gomes, as it will be remembered, shortly after her return from the United States where she had been perfecting her art in music with eminent teachers and engaged in numerous musical activities and concerts, has won the distinction of being the first Portuguese lady in the Colony to receive the degree of Fellowship from the Trinity College of Music, London, following her examination in Hong Kong by Dr. Miskowski.

THE PROGRAMME

The programme of the Concert, in which several fine voices will be introduced to the public for the first time, promises to be very interesting and delightful, including the following numbers:

Overture—op. "Bohemian Girl" (By Orchestra)—Balfé.

"Qui la voce"—op. "Puritani"—Bellini.

"Charmant Oiseau"—op. "Félicie du Brasil" (By Miss Edwina Rogers with Flute accom. by Mr. Jack Suiter)—Bizet.

"Concertino"—Flute. Solo (By Mr. Jack Suiter)—Chaminade.

"Lucia di Lamermoor"—op. Sestette (By Miss Edwina Rogers, Mrs. F. Fernandes, Messrs. A. Rodrigues, J. Rodgers, J. Almeida and Carlos Chan)—Donizetti.

Piano Concerto in C Major (By Miss Adelina Xavier and Miss M. Gomes)—Beethoven.

Piano Solo—Intermezzo (By Miss M. McCaw)—Schumann.

Selection—op. "Maritana" (By Juvenile Orchestra)—Balfé.

Selected Songs (By Miss Paz Lacayo).

Selected Songs in Portuguese (By amateurs of Liga Portuguesa).

Play in one Act entitled "Amor, Constatado" in Portuguese (By amateurs of Liga Portuguesa).

MISS PACIFIC FLEET

At The Queen's

When the average movie fan turns to the drama page and sees the names of Joan Blondell and Glenda Farrell linked together in a forthcoming moving picture, he immediately assumes that they will be cast as two wisecracking, young gold-diggers.

Their work in such pictures as "Kansas City Princess," "Havana Widows," "Traveling Saleslady" and "We're in the Money" stamped them as the topmost exponents of the subtle art and now their fans expect to see them as nothing else.

Their latest Warner Bros. picture "Miss Pacific Fleet" which is showing at the Queen's Theatre, to-day is no disappointment to those moviegoers who delight in seeing the two girls wheedle a few hundred dollars out of the pockets of a shy but willing business man. For they're gold-digging the navy this time, and putting a couple of battleships in mortgage while they do it.

"Miss Pacific Fleet" is a rollicking comedy romance. Others in the cast include Hugh Herbert, Allen

WEDNESDAY—"STRANGE WIVES" with ROGER PRYOR JUNE CLAYBORTH

TWO TRAVELLING JOURNALISTS

Young Germans On A Tour Round The World

Shanghai, May 6.

Tanned by long exposure to sun and wind, two young German journalists have arrived in Shanghai after an 18 months' trip, mostly overland, from Marburg, Germany, and will stay here for about a fortnight before returning home once more by way of Japan and America.

The two young men, H. Berndt and H. Brunotte, both of whom are 21 years old, travelled on foot through south eastern Europe to Turkey, where they embarked on board a small ship and went to Egypt. Here, after browsing around various garages, they unearthed what appeared to be one of the earliest "Baby" Austins to leave the factory, and purchased it for the princely sum of £8.

In this little car they visited Palestine. Even at that time, trouble between the Arabs and the Jews was beginning to smoulder, and a Jew was killed in a fight not far from the Inn where the two men were staying. After a day or so, they moved on into Syria, where the Baby Austin finally stopped for the last time; Berndt and Brunotte accordingly transferred to a passing motor bus, leaving £8 of motor car behind, and arrived in Baghdad in good time, where they purchased a couple of camels for the equivalent of $30 each. Then, by various means, they made their way through Persia, Afghanistan, India, Rangoon, and Siam.

From Bangkok to Hong Kong, the journey was made by coastal steamer. Making their way to Canton, they then travelled by rail and motor bus to Chungking, Hankow, Peking, Tientsin, and Tientsin, where they once more boarded a steamer, bound for Shanghai. (N.C.D.N.)

COUNTERFEIT MONEY

MORE FOUND

Two Chinese were on Saturday charged before Mr. Q.A.A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy on several counts in relation to possession and uttering of forged ten cent pieces and were remanded on the application of the prosecution till Wednesday. Bail in the sum of $250 each was allowed.

The accused were: Lee Wai Kwan (23) described as a brush-maker of No. 268 Reclamation Street, Yau-mat, and Lee Che (54) a tobacco seller of the same address. Both were charged with the unlawful possession of 16 ten cent counterfeit pieces "with intent to utter." While Lee Wai Kwan was additionally charged with uttering six counterfeit ten cent pieces.

Lee Che was also further charged with possession of a forged Hong Kong Government $1 note. Both defendants entered pleas of "not guilty."

Inspector A. H. Elston said that a man was sent to a shop in Reclamation Street, by the second accused to buy a packet of cigarettes. He tendered a $1 note, and was given 90 cents change. Six of these coins proved to be counterfeit. A search warrant was obtained and the police raided the premises, when ten further counterfeit ten cent coins were unearthed. A forged $1 note of the H.K. Government issue was also found.

In making an application for a formal remand, Inspector Elston said that he would require time to consider whether the case was to be taken summarily or for commitment.

STOLE FROM PEAK

Man Caught

Charged with the larceny of an electric switch from the premises of Brankome Towers, May Road, Yip Yui alias Lee Man, alias Lal Lum, appeared before Mr. S. F. Balfour at the Central Court on Saturday and pleading guilty was sentenced to three months' hard labour.

Det.-Sergt. Cashman stated that on the 7th Wan Wing, the caretaker, saw the defendant in the act of removing one of the switches. When he was questioned the defendant made an attempt to escape. The caretaker called another fink and between them they were told by their master to take defendant to the Station. He was searched and another switch was found on him. He admitted stealing it from Brankome Towers. The switch was valued at $4.50.

SHELLS AND ITS DANGER

Unemployed Charged

Lip Man, 28, unemployed was charged before Mr. S. F. Balfour at the Central Court on Saturday, with (a) damage to the property of a public mooring or anchorage at the Yau-mat Ferry Wharf and (b) trespassing.

Sub-Inspector Mist for the prosecution said that the case was taken out as result of a complaint made by the P.W.D. Defendant was occupied in digging out some kind of shell fish from the supports of the wharf and in doing so damaged the supports.

Mr. Cheeseman of the P.W.D. said that if the defendant was allowed to take the shells he would damage the concrete, and eventually expose the reinforcement and corrosion would result.

Defendant was fined $10 or 14 days on the first charge and bound over on the second.

STOLE FROM UNEMPLOYED

Lip Sang (35) of No. 117, Des Voeux Road, West third floor, was charged before Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday with theft of several pieces of clothing from an unemployed man, named Tsang Ta, of No. 89 Ta Ku Ling Street, ground floor. The theft was alleged to have taken place on April 27, and included the following articles: one black European jacket, a grey European style jacket, four waist coats, eight white cotton shirts, and a brown overcoat. On the application of the prosecution, the case was remanded till this morning.

Around the Courts

VAGRANT

Abdul Niamat, 17, was committed to the House of Detention when he appeared before Mr. S. F. Balfour at the Central Court charged with vagrancy. Det.-Sergt. Russell prosecuted.

ONE MONTH TOO EARLY

Returning to the Colony one month before the expiration of his term of banishment, Mo Ki, 35, unemployed was charged before Mr. S. F. Balfour at the Central Court on Saturday and was sentenced to one month hard labour.

Defendant said that he returned thinking that his term of banishment was up.

Sub-Inspector Mist prosecuted.

HE LIKES HONG KONG

Wu Lai, 30, unemployed was sentenced to one year's imprisonment by Mr. S. F. Balfour at the Central Court on Saturday when he appeared charged with returning from banishment. He was sentenced to 10 years' banishment on March 18, this year.

BANISHES

Tong Kan 'Chuen, 31 years of age, was charged before Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday with returning to the Colony before the expiration of a banishment order dated September 29, 1933 for ten years. Sentence of six months' imprisonment was imposed. Accused was described as a quarter-master on board the s.s. Hermod.

Chung San, 31, coolie, was charged at the Central Court before Mr. W. Scheffeld on Saturday with returning from banishment. He was arrested in Lockhart Road. Defendant admitted three previous convictions and to his term of banishment to which he was sent for 10 years on October 9, last year. Sentence of one year was passed.

WORKER'S LAPSE

A fine of $25, or in default, one month's imprisonment was imposed on Yan Kwan, a fitter of the Cosmopolitan Dock, by Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday for the theft of brass from the docks. Accused who pleaded guilty, was arrested by an Indian Sergeant. The value of the stolen goods, was stated to be $10.00. Inspector Ellis said that Yan had been employed in the docks for the past ten years, and received $1.30 a day.

FORGED $50 NOTE

An unemployed teacher, 25 years of age appeared before Mr. Q.A.A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday charged with uttering a forged $50 note of the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank at Shanghai Street, on May 8, "with intent to defraud."

The accused, Chung Wai Leung pleaded "not guilty."

An additional charge of possession of a forged $50 note was also levied against the accused.

Detective Sergeant J. Hunter who appeared for the prosecution applied for 48 hours remand which was granted.

LACK OF EVIDENCE

ALLEGED THIEF DISCHARGED

Theft of articles of clothing from the Officers' Mess, 8th Punjab Regiment, in Cameron Road, followed by an assault on a private of the same regiment, was mentioned before Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday, when two coolies were charged on remand in connection with the crime.

The first accused, Wong Nam (27) was charged with the actual theft from the verandah of the Officers' Mess, while Yeung Cheong (50) was charged in conjunction with Wong of having assaulted Pte. Geyan (35) private of the Punjab Regiment on May 7, at Chi Wo Street, near Mau Lam Street.

The accused were discharged because of the lack of evidence. When the case was first brought up the men were charged before Mr. Q.A.A. Macfadyen. They entered pleas of "not guilty." The case was transferred to the Second Court on Saturday because Mr. Macfadyen was occupied with a criminal case involving three charged with robbery at Lai-chikok.

EMBEZZLER GAOLED

Appearing on remand before Mr. S. F. Balfour at the Central Court on Saturday charged with the embezzlement of $400.91, Chan Wing-tong alias Chan Wing-to was sentenced to six months' imprisonment. Det.-Sergt. C. Byron said that the case had been remanded in order to allow the defendant to make amends to the complainant. Defendant had not been able to raise any money.

MATRIMONIAL AFFAIRS

Wong Fong-shing appeared on remand before Mr. S. F. Balfour at the Central Court on Saturday summoned by his wife, Chu Mee-yau for desertion, persistent cruelty and neglect to provide a reasonable maintenance.

Wong Wai and Wong Mok-sing, parents of the husband, were also charged with assault.

Mr. E. S. C. Brooks appeared for the complainant and said that the matter was being dealt with by the S.C.A. and he therefore asked for a further remand.

The case was remanded for one week.

OPIMUM POSSESSION

The possession of 150 taels of prepared opium and 338 taels of raw opium on board his sampan No. 4357W at Lyemmun Pass on May 9, resulted in the appearance of Lo Choi in the Central Court on Saturday before Mr. S. F. Balfour. R. O. Grimmit prosecuted. The defendant was fined $2,000 or nine months in default. Application for the confiscation of the sampan was granted.

DUTIABLE LIQUOR

Wong Shi, 52, appeared before Mr. S. F. Balfour at the Central Court on Saturday charged with (a) The possession of dutiable liquor, (b) the possession of distilling apparatus at No. 5, Li On Lane and (c) the possession of fermenting materials.

R. O. Grimmit prosecuted and said that the defendant when arrested in the house was lying on his bed with hardly any clothes on, thus indicating the presence of heat. His bed was over some fermenting mash.

Defendant was fined a total of $150 or one month plus an additional two weeks.

OBSTRUCTION

Yan Shi, 29, unemployed charged with street obstruction while selling tickets of the Kau U Fong Theatre outside the same theatre appeared before Mr. S. F. Balfour at the Central Court on Saturday and was fined $5 or one week in default.

COUNTERFEIT COINS

Li Yung alias Fong Kuen, 30, widow, was sentenced to four months' hard labour at the Central Court on Saturday by Mr. S. F. Balfour when she pleaded guilty to the charge of possession of 27 counterfeit ten-cent pieces. Det.-Sergt. Guild prosecuted.

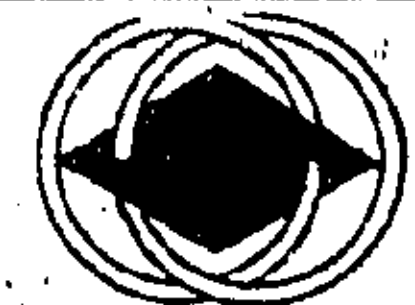

NO PASSPORT

A RUSSIAN CONVICTED

Jack Werneroff alias A. J. Lewin, alias M. Wassberg, alias P. B. Boncourt, 24, born in Kiev, Russia, was charged before Mr. S. F. Balfour at the Central Court on Saturday with: (a) a breach of the passport ordinance, (b) a breach of the registration of Person Ordinance, (c) giving false information by signing his name as A. J. Lewin, a Latvian subject, at the Palace Hotel, (d) signing his name at the Kowloon Hotel as M. Wassberg, a Polish subject and (e) signing his name at the St. Francis Hotel as P. B. Boncourt, a French subject. Defendant admitted all charges.

Det.-Sergt. Russell for the prosecution stated that defendant arrived in Hong Kong from Canton with a passport which required a British visa. Had he applied for the visa it would have been refused as he was fined and expelled for a similar offence in 1935. He had registered with the Police in 1934 as Jack Werneroff, a Russian subject.

Defendant was sentenced to a fine of $30 or three weeks on the first charge, and to $10 or ten days on each of the other three. The sentences to run consecutively.

INQUEST OPENED ON MR. T. NORMAN

Nothing Revealed To Account For His Death

WIDOW GIVES EVIDENCE BEFORE CORONER

Shanghai, May 6. Mrs. Dorothy Agnes Norman, widow of the late Mr. Thomas Norman, whose body was found floating in the Whangpoo last Friday after he had been missing for a week, could throw no light on her husband's death when questioned by the Coroner, Mr. C. H. Haines, in H. M. Police Court yesterday afternoon. She said that she had no reason to believe that her husband should take his own life. He was not worried and had no enemies. He was abstemious.

The last time she saw him alive was at about 8 a.m. on Friday, April 24, at the boarding house in which they were staying, 427 Ya Yuen Road. He was going to catch an 8.30 a.m. tender leaving from the Bund for the Kiang-nan Docks. He told her to expect him back in the evening but as it was going to be a busy day for him he might not get off duty. In that case he would telephone her at 8 p.m. and say he could not come. If he did not telephone she was to expect him by 6.15 p.m. Her husband normally made such arrangements with her she said.

Mrs. Norman said she was quite sure that the body recovered by the River Police was her husband's. She did not know how much money her husband had with him on the last day she saw him but three days before he had $30. He wore a gold signet-ring and had a gold watch. Insp. J. Kirshok told the Coroner that $3 and two twenty-cent pieces were found in the deceased's pockets when taken from the river.

Det.-Sergt. S. Nancarrow, who attended the inquest, said he had nothing further to report when asked by the Coroner. The inquest will be re-opened by the Coroner in H. M. Police Court at 10 o'clock on Friday.

The late Mr. Thomas Norman was chief officer of the China Navigation Company's ss. Wantung. His body was found half a mile down river from the Customs Jetty. He was 32 years of age. (N.C.D.N.)

ENGINEER ACCUSED OF FORGERY

PUBLIC WORKS COMMISSIONER AS WITNESS

Shanghai, May 6. Mr. C. Harpur, Commissioner of Public Works, was one of the witnesses in the First Special District Court yesterday at the trial of Choy Ching-wei, civil engineer, accused of forging Mr. Harpur's signature on three letters with intent to defraud Mr. Ching Yue-chee, manager of a real estate company in the Settlement. Mr. Harpur's testimony briefly was to the effect that these signatures were forged and that the accused was a former employee of the P.W.D. The Judge announced he will give his decision next Tuesday.

The accused made his first appearance before the court last week when a writ of detention was issued against him on application of the police. Sufficient evidence having been found during the period of detention, the police preferred a charge of forgery against the accused yesterday. It was alleged that the accused had sent letters to the manager of the real estate company, bearing Mr. Harpur's signature, and saying that the Council was considering the purchase of certain lands owned by the company. It was later disclosed that this was without foundation. (N.C.D.N.)

RIOT AT KIOUSIN DOCK

Old And New Workers In Serious Clash

ONE MAN IS REPORTED TO BE MISSING

Shanghai, May 6. A pitched battle waged early yesterday morning between former employees of the Kiousin Dock and the present China staff resulted in four of the latter being taken to the Hospital St. Marie, suffering from very serious injuries to the head and body. Another workman was missing up to a late hour last night, and it is feared that, during the clash, he either fell or was thrown into the river and drowned.

Some time ago, the Kiousin Ship-building & Engineering Works, Ltd., dismissed a number of its native staff, who had gone on strike, and engaged over a hundred workmen in their place. The dismissed men gathered on the Pootung property, of the dock company at 5.30 a.m. yesterday, and, with knives, sticks, and other weapons, commenced to assault the new workmen. Several were wounded on both sides, and some sixty arrests were made by the Bureau of Public Safety, which sent a special body of men to the scene to break up the fight.

The arrested men were all lodged in gaol over night, pending their appearance before the Chinese courts, while the four injured men were brought across the river and taken to hospital, where their condition was pronounced very serious. It is understood that two of the former employees also were badly injured, but were taken care of by their fellow workmen.

Later in the day, similar trouble broke out amongst old and new workers of a Chinese mill in Footong. A number of men received wounds of a superficial nature, and a dozen were arrested by the Bureau of Public Safety and detained. (N.C.D.N.)

RICKSHAW IN BLAZE ON ROAD

Morphine And Heroin Found By Constables

Shanghai, May 6. A fire in a rickshaw has resulted in the destruction of morphine, heroin, and a quantity of materials used for the manufacture of narcotics. At about 1 p.m. last Friday, public rickshaw No. 8845, hired to take a quantity of articles from 400 Connaught Road to a Seymour Road house, suddenly broke into flames before reaching its destination. Two pedestrians came to the rickshaw puller's assistance, but, in fighting the fire, they sustained burns and had to be taken to hospital.

Two Chinese constables of Gordon Road Station appeared and helped to extinguish the flame. When they looked for the owner of the articles, who accompanied the rickshaw from 400 Connaught Road, however, it was found that the man had disappeared. The rickshaw was taken to a police station where it was found that the articles carried by the vehicle consisted of morphine, heroin, bottles of alcohol and ammonia, flasks, etc.

For three days, nobody appeared to claim the property so, yesterday, these articles were brought to the First Special District Court, to which the police made an application for disposal. The Judge ordered them to be confiscated and efforts be made to locate their owner. (N.C.D.N.)

TWELVE YEARS FOR RED PILL SMOKING

Shanghai, May 6. A sentence of twelve years' imprisonment was passed by the First Special District Court yesterday upon San Yan-tung, a hawker, charged with conducting red pill smoking in House No. 215, Canton Road, last month. Two others have already been sentenced in conjunction with the same case. (N.C.D.N.)

GERMANY'S
"NEW PLAN"For Foreign
TradeDR. O. C. KIEP'S
TALK

At the dinner given in his honour at the German Club on Friday, Dr. O. C. Kiep, Head of the German Economic Commission to the Far East, explained the "New Plan" of Dr. Schacht.

Dr. Kiep had previously paid a courtesy on His Excellency and Governor Sir Andrew Caldecott, together with Herr H. Gipperich, German Consul, and had tea with His Excellency.

After outlining the burdens and problems of Germany, Dr. Kiep stated that these problems had several times brought Germany to the verge of ruin, especially after the foreign credits extended to Germany under the Dawes and Young Plan were withdrawn in 1931, and consequently the whole credit structure of the country threatened to collapse.

UNEMPLOYMENT REDUCED

The speaker stated that a period of progressive disintegration of political, economic and social organisation of the whole country led up to the crisis in 1933, when the new National Socialist Government under Adolf Hitler stepped in and inaugurated a policy of reconstruction and recovery which had since made considerable progress. Besides establishing Germany's political independence, a programme of public works, land recovery, road building etc. had been started, and carried through, enabling the reduction of unemployment in Germany from the startling figure of 6 1/2 millions to less than 2 millions today.

The financing of such an ambitious plan by a country on the verge of bankruptcy through the withdrawal of all foreign credit was a task and venture of the highest magnitude. The main credit, the speaker emphasised, is due to the statesman-banker, Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, whom Hitler had assigned the dual post of President of the Reichsbank and Minister of Economics with almost dictatorial powers.

Much foreign criticism, said Dr. Kiep, was attached to the methods of Dr. Schacht, but to reproach could be less justified, for only through the measures employed to safeguard the currency and to uphold the financial and credit structure of the country could a complete breakdown of the entire German economic system and a total loss to all foreign creditors be avoided.

Since 1930, Germany has, as a matter of fact, been continually paying back her foreign debts, sacrificing all her gold and the surplus of her foreign trade, as long as this surplus was available, for this purpose.

NEW PLAN

Turning to the "New Plan," the speaker said: "Besides organising the new internal credit system, necessary to finance the German recovery programme, Dr. Schacht has carried through a complete reorganisation in Germany's foreign trade. The aim of the new plan has been to rationalise and coordinate German imports and exports, and to prevent a new debt arising from an excess of the former. This planned economy has, of course, entailed many undesirable impediments to the transaction of commercial business to and from Germany. But a certain amount of Governmental interference is unavoidable in every planned economy and the German Government seeks as much as possible to adjust the measures taken to the requirements and the trade conditions of the different countries with which Germany is engaged in trade. Moreover they are measures of emergency, destined, like the transfer suspension, to serve the interests of the countries, just as much as the interests of Germany herself. They enable the maintenance of Germany's purchasing power during the critical period of debt liquidation and prepare the way to a return of normal trade relations at the earliest possible moment."

PAYMENT OF LOANS

The payment of loans, still continuing to-day is responsible for the enormous strain on Germany's finances witnessed during the last years and for the reduction of the standard of living of the people. It is really surprising to see features of the latter, as the recent scarcity of butter and fats in Germany, being registered with satisfaction in certain organs of the international press as a sign of weakness of the German economy.

URBAN COUNCIL

ORDERS OF THE DAY

At the fortnightly meeting of the Urban Council which is being held to-morrow, Dr. R. A. de Castro Basto, pursuant to notice, will ask the following questions:—

- 1—Whether a bacteriological survey has ever been made of the sea water at the various bathing beaches in Hong Kong and Kowloon?
 - 2—If the answer is in the affirmative, what was the result of this examination?
 - 3—If in the negative, is it not considered advisable, in the interest of public health, to undertake this survey?
- Eleven applications will also come up for discussion together with the regular returns.

ROBBERS TO STAND TRIAL

CASE FOR SESSIONS

Commitment proceedings against three accused who were alleged to be responsible for an armed robbery perpetrated on March 21, at No. 271 Lai-chai-kok Road, when money and property to the total value of $620 was stolen came to an end on Saturday, when Mr. Q. A. Macfadyen, the Kowloon Magistrate committed all three defendants to stand their trial at the next Criminal Sessions.

The accused were: Yuen Ming Sang, alias Mak Leung (23), Fung Kai, alias Fung Tai (41) unemployed and Ho Kwai (43), widow of No. 138 Chung Choi Street ground floor. The charge against all three was that they with another not in custody on March 21 did rob Chan Lau Heung, married woman of jewellery and money to the total value of $620. Of this sum $500 was in cash.

Detective Inspector A. H. Eston, prosecuted assisted by Detective Sergeant C. H. Goodwin.

ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE
OLD BOYSAnnual Dinner To Be Held

In connection with the Diamond Jubilee of the College it is proposed to hold a Past Pupils Dinner in the College on Saturday, May 16 at 8 p.m. after the concert. A notice to this effect appears in the advertisement column of this issue and all those old boys who are desirous of attending are requested to send in their names as soon as possible. Those in charge of the function trust that as many old boys as possible will answer the call so that the function may be a success and at the same time the dinner will afford an opportunity for the past pupils to meet again.

under the new regime, instead of realising the extent of sacrifice brought by the German people to repay their foreign debts and of voicing disapproval of a return to wartime happenings after 18 years of proclaimed peace.

Under the "New Plan" the structure of Germany's foreign trade has been subjected to considerable change, mainly on the import side. Imports have had to be restricted to indispensable food stuffs and to the raw materials essential to an upkeep of German industry. At the same time the lack of foreign exchange has reduced Germany's imports from those countries in which purchasing power arising from German export is not sufficiently available, and has increased Germany's purchases of raw materials in countries which offer a market for Germany's industrial exports." MUI-TSAI OWNERS
BEWAREHeavier Punishment
Proposed

The "Gazette" contains the draft of an Ordinance to amend the Female Domestic Service Ordinance, 1923.

It is explained that by sub-sections (1) and (2) of section 18 of Ordinance No. 1 of 1923, as enacted by section 7 of Ordinance No. 22 of 1929, the maximum penalty for contravention of section 6 of the 1923 Ordinance, which dealt with treatment of a "mui-tai," was a fine of H.K.$500 and imprisonment for six months, unless gross cruelty was proved, in which case the maximum penalty was one year's imprisonment without the option of paying a fine.

By sub-section (3) the maximum penalty for other contraventions of the Ordinance or of any regulation made thereunder was a fine of H.K.$250.

In the Straits Settlements by section 14 of S.S. Ordinance No. 5 of 1932 the maximum penalty for contravention of their section 7, which is equivalent in effect to our section 6, is a fine of S.S. $500 and imprisonment for two years. For other contraventions of their Ordinance or of any rule made thereunder the Straits Settlements maximum penalty is a fine of S.S. $200 or six months' imprisonment.

In the House of Commons on the 19th February, 1936, the Secretary of State, referring to "mui-tai" cases in Hongkong, said "I have looked into the prosecutions and I find there are too many fines. I would like to see imprisonment as a deterrent."

The object of this amending Bill is to provide a maximum penalty of six months' imprisonment in addition to the fine of H.K. $250 for contraventions of the provisions of the Ordinance or regulations other than those dealt with in section 7 which are already punishable with imprisonment.

By section 11 (2) of Ordinance No. 30 of 1911 the use of the word "and" signifies that the penalties of fine and imprisonment may be inflicted alternatively or cumulatively.

Vaccination
CampaignCLINIC FEES BEHIND
DIFFERENCES

Shanghai, May 6. Relations between the Japanese Medical Association and the Japanese Residents' Corporation were ruptured yesterday following the former's refusal to co-operate with the community organization in the annual smallpox vaccination campaign among local Nipponese.

In a formal call on Mr. Masasaburo Amano, president of the Corporation, Dr. Kinichi Tengu, president of the physicians' group, on Monday afternoon informed him of a decision reached at an emergency meeting of the Medical Association on Sunday night to the effect that that body would not accede to the request of the Corporation for aid in its annual vaccination campaign.

The dispute revolves around the operation by the Corporation of a medical clinic, which the other physicians claim, is threatening their means of livelihood.

ORIGINS OF DISPUTE

On April 13, the Medical Association informed the Corporation that its three member-doctors, who had hitherto conducted the physical examinations at the Corporation's schools at the opening of the academic year, would no longer be available for the duty.

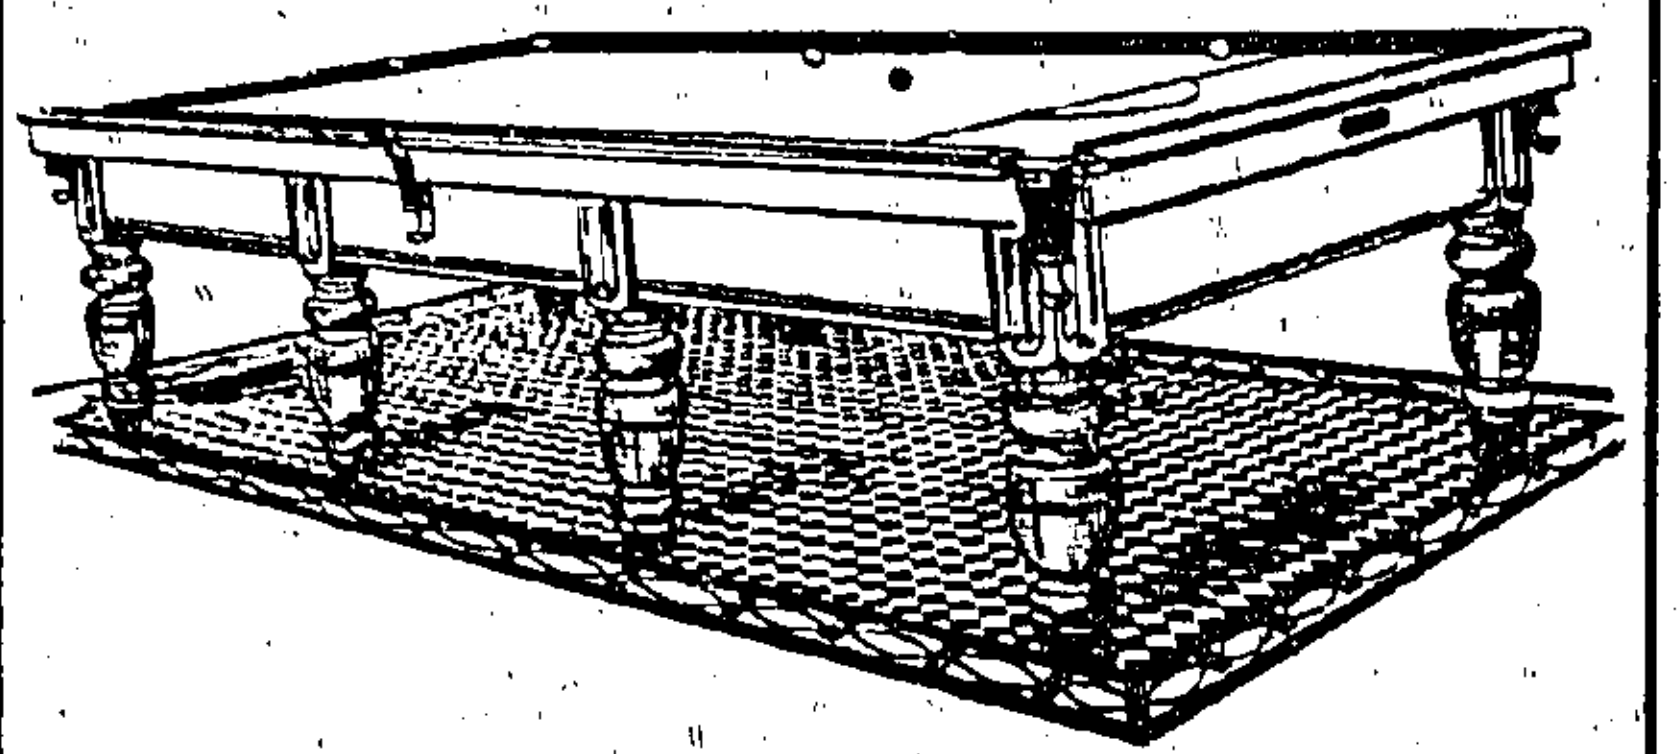

This action, it was understood by the local Japanese press at the time, followed the statement of Mr. Amano that the Corporation would not approve the practitioners' proposal to limit the services of the Corporation's clinic to patients of low and medium incomes.

Dr. Tengu had previously informed the Corporation's head that members of the Association, already hit by the depression, would suffer further losses if the clinic continued to treat well-to-do patients.

The Association proposed that the clinic treat and charge patients on the basis of the dues paid by them to the Corporation. — (N.C.D.N.)

THE NAVAL TREATY

"Better than nothing, but not a great deal better than nothing" might roughly sum up the naval treaty signed in London recently. Until 1942 at least, so far as Britain, France, and the United States are concerned, we are to have no new battleships bigger than 35,000 tons—bigger, that is, than the Rodney or Nelson. Since, in default of agreement, there would have been no bar (except the prospect of national bankruptcy) on one country building battleships as big as the Queen Mary and compelling the others to follow suit, this is something. But even the 35,000-ton capital ship is enormously expensive; much naval opinion would have been glad to see a considerably smaller ship. Aircraft-carriers are tied to a maximum of 23,000 tons, but no admiral would have wanted to build appreciably bigger ones in any event, treaty or no treaty; the day of vulnerable and unmaneuverable 33,000-ton Lexingtons is over for good. Nor does the prohibition of the 10,000-ton cruiser, a class now regarded as overgrown and badly balanced in design, do much more than give the admirals what they want. They can still build as many 8,000-ton cruisers as they like and as many ocean-going submarines of 2,000 tons as they like, for, of course, the treaty, applying only to tonnage and gun calibre, does not attempt to limit the actual numbers of ships. There is qualitative limitation, but no quantitative. Britain and the United States recently renewed their pledges to retain their respective fleets at parity, but this is merely a mutual arrangement, undefined by treaty. Japan remains outside the treaty's provisions, while Italy is still holding out for the removal of sanctions before she will add her signature. The treaty in brief, is no more than a provisional arrangement between a few of the naval Powers. It remains to be seen whether general political conditions will worsen and invite the denouncing of the agreement by the use of the "escape" clauses or whether they will improve and encourage a further and more imposing step in limitation.

MANCHUKUO RIVER
GUNBOATS

Peiping, May 10.
With the break-up of the ice covering the Sungari River, the Manchukuo river gunboat flotilla has slipped its mooring at Harbin and is steaming north toward the Amur. The departure was made on Friday morning.

Admiral In, commanding the flotilla called his captains together and gave them final instructions. Then a toast was proposed to the puppet Emperor, and the flotilla cast off "in the teeth of a cold breeze from the north." The gunboats are manned by 180 ratings who have already undergone cold weather endurance tests.—Union News.

Retreating To Sikang

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Canton, May 10.
For the third time the Communists in Yunnan are repelled from that province by the push of the provincial troops of General Lung Yui, Chairman of the Yunnan Provincial Government. The Reds suffered a loss of 300 men in their retreat and are now escaping to Sikang.

General Liu Wen-hui, in command of troops in Sikang, was warned of the Communist incursions beforehand and has sent 4,000 soldiers to hold up the advance. The Sikang troops are poor fighters and may not be able to check the Communist offensive.

Sikang was twice invaded by the outlaws during the past eleven months, but owing to the poor resources of the province they did not remain there long. They are

Statement

Nanking, May 10.
Major-General Sekichi Kita, new military attaché to the Japanese Embassy in China, made the following statement:—

"I have come to the capital mainly to announce my assumption of the office of military attaché," he said. He added that he intended to talk further with Foreign Minister Chang Chun for circumstances permit.

Referring to Nanking's proposed Sino-Japanese conference at the capital, Major-General Kita expressed the fear that contrary to general expectations, the convocation of such a conference would give rise to fresh differences between the two governments.

"Although there may be divergence of views, each Government having its own standpoint, efforts will have to be made to reach a middle course," he stated.

"Japan's three principles" must be carried out in the interests of normal Sino-Japanese relations," he asserted. "There are indications, however, that the Chinese doubt the true intentions of the Japanese."

General Kita said he would try to bring home to Chinese leaders the sincerity of the Tokyo Government in its policies towards China.

SITUATION IN
MONGOLIAGloomy Outlook For
The Future

Peiping, May 10.
The political situation in Mongolia is extremely uncertain, according to well-informed circles. No less than twenty Japanese advisers to Prince Teh are forcing the latter to organize an independent government, separate from the Central Government of China.

The execution of high Mongolian officials of Hsianan Province in Manchuria by the Japanese authorities is causing serious dissatisfaction among the Mongolian leaders. According to well-informed circles, the Mongolian leaders of Hsianan Province were executed not for their secret connections with the Soviet Union but due to their opposition to the Japanese brutality in Manchuria. The Japanese, fearing that Prince Teh may establish connections with the U.S.S.R., are pressing Prince Teh to organize an independent government in Mongolia. The future conditions in Inner Mongolia remain very gloomy.—Union News.

NORTH CHINA
SMUGGLINGTariff Reduction
Advocated

Peiping, May 9.
The Japanese attitude to the North China smuggling was plainly stated yesterday by Major-General Tada, commandant at Tientsin, who has been visiting Peiping and Tungechow, when he declared that there was no smuggling into East Hopen.

Goods entering East Hopen should not be considered as smuggled goods, since the importers have paid the Customs duties levied by the East Hopen authorities.

He hoped that the National Government would of its own accord lower the existing tariff, "thus automatically solving the problem."

CHINESE PETITION

Shanghai, May 9.
The Federation of Associated Chinese Industries has sent a petition to Nanking, urging the rigid suppression of the smuggling in North China and also rigorously opposing any reduction in the sugar and artificial silk duties as a remedy for the situation. Mr. Wang Chih-shen, Secretary of the Federation, interviewed, discussed the smuggling as part of Tokyo's policy of "hijacking Nanking into lowering the tariff."

General Chiang Kai-shek, according to reports, left for Nanking by plane to-day after four days' holiday in Shanghai. He conferred with various important Chinese officials yesterday, including Dr. Wang Chung-hui.

LORD CECIL'S
VIEWSSanctions Must Be Maintained

London, May 9.

A crowd of 10,000 persons jamming the Albert Hall cheered Lord Cecil when he declared the League of Nations must maintain sanctions against Italy, and even intensify them if necessary.

Speaking at a meeting called by the League of Nations Union, Lord Cecil declared he never remembered an occasion when the people of Great Britain had been more moved than in this Italo-Ethiopian crisis. Never had there been such a demonstration of feeling since the death of General Gordon, he believed.

He referred to the Emperor of Ethiopia as an heroic figure, deserted by those he trusted, preferring exile to dishonour.

While there was a shred of hope for the re-establishment of the Emperor, they could not recognise any other Government in Ethiopia which was still a member of the League and entitled to the joint protection from League states which she was promised, he asserted.

A resolution was moved by Mr. Clement Attlee, Leader of the Opposition in the House of Commons, affirming his party's support of the League and the principle of collective security, and reiterating its indignation at the invasion of Ethiopia.

The resolution called upon the Government to maintain sanctions until Italy was ready to accept the League's terms for peace, approved by the Council of the Nations.

The resolution was passed unanimously and with tremendous enthusiasm.—Reuter.

If Gossip We Must

(BY "OBSERVER")

The week started with a lunch party at the Blisley Meeting of the Hongkong Rifle Association which was held in ideal weather, but perhaps a little too hot, but all the ladies managed to keep most cool looking and there was a perfect galaxy of gay and bright colours. Mrs. Walker, whose husband is the President of the Association, had chosen the most lovely shade of powder blue for her dress and her hat was of the same colour. H. E. The Governor was present, also Commodore and Mrs. Sedgwick and Brigadier and Mrs. Seth-Smith. Yellow is always so cool and fresh looking and I don't know why more people do not wear it. Mrs. Fordham was in yellow last Monday, also Mrs. Rodwell whose dress was of yellow and white diagonal stripes. Mrs. Caffyn brought her small son who seemed quite at home and most interested in everything which was taking place round him. Col. and Mrs. Whitaker I saw and Mrs. Edwards looking very summery, belonged to the hatless brigade. Mrs. Brigham in brown and white cotton checks introduced the Peter Pan effect by her large white collar.

In spite of everyone either going away at any moment or having gone, Hongkong doesn't yet seem to be lacking in parties or any amusements. Bathing is in full swing and every beach seems to be full of people sunning themselves not realising how strong the sun is and how uncomfortable they will feel for several days after. There are some very snappy bathing suits about, also beach outfits and shorts and after Lane, Crawford's dress show no doubt there will be plenty more as they certainly had chosen some most engaging outfits.

Cocktail Parties have again been in evidence this week and there have been one or two Birthday Celebrations which have led to many parties one way and another and I think by now have been well celebrated all round, and in so many different ways, that we will say no more about it and try and let them forget, hoping that they are both, by now, feeling much older and wiser.

The Hong Kong and Shanghai Hotels seem to be still doing very well and every night the Hong Kong Hotel is packed with people and the Peninsula are having there two or three nights a week dancing and seem to be successful in getting the people in, as it is such an ideal place for dancing and so cool and pleasant.

The Gloucester Hotel next Saturday are having a special Dinner Dance which should be most successful. Dinner is being served out on the cool airy Terraces which will be decorated with fairy lights. The chief feature of the evening will be their entirely new form of dance music of syncopated melodies played by Doreen Ma and George Bond, both of whom are Hong Kong's favourite Radio Stars. It sounds as though it will be a great success and I am sure that crowds of people will be there, so book your table now in plenty of time and incidentally these Dinner Dances will be continued every Saturday starting from May 16th.

GERMAN PRESS
LOSSTransocean Editor's
Death

('Hong Kong Daily Press' Special)

Berlin, May 9.

The well-known editor of Transocean News Service, Herr Wilhelm Schwedler, died here in the early hours of to-day after a long and painful illness, aged 63.

In Herr Schwedler the German press has lost one of its members who knew foreign countries and especially foreign news organisations best. Thanks to his personal charm and sterling character, combined with the accuracy of his judgment, which was invariably tempered with a mild scepticism, the deceased was highly esteemed not only among his colleagues of the press but also in a far wider circle of politics and diplomacy, alike at home and abroad.

In the course of his journalistic career Herr Schwedler often occupied important posts abroad. For many years he was the London correspondent of the leading German newspapers. Shortly before the war he became the editor of a German newspaper in Cairo, and during the war he edited the "Osmanischer Lloyd" in Constantinople.

In 1919 he was appointed to the editorship of the Transocean News Service, in the development of which into a political wireless news service embracing the whole world outside Europe in its scope he played a decisive part, thanks to his knowledge of foreign countries and his breadth of vision.

Herr Schwedler's many-sided activities were by no means confined to editorial work. He was also the author of a number of books dealing with political and journalistic questions.—Transocean News Service.

PRESS VIEWS

London, May 8.

The morning papers mostly hold the opinion that the League Council is not likely to take any drastic step on Monday. It will probably adjourn, which will mean that sanctions in their present form will continue. "The Times" states that the Council may well decide that the most useful measure at present is to make no move. Who can say that it will not be weeks or months before any definite step is possible?—Reuter.

ANNEXATION OF ABYSSINIA PROCLAIMED: KING BECOMES EMPEROR

Marshal Badoglio To Be Viceroy

NEW ROMAN EMPIRE CREATED

Full And Unrestricted Sovereignty

(Hong Kong Daily Press Special)

Rome, May 10.

"The King of Italy to-day assumes the title of Emperor of Abyssinia and all territories and peoples of Abyssinia are placed under the full and unrestricted sovereignty of Italy". These momentous decisions regarding the fate of Ethiopia were announced by Signor Benito Mussolini to the Italian nation from the balcony of the Palazzo Venezia on Saturday evening.

The burst of spontaneous enthusiasm which followed the proclamation of Abyssinia's incorporation in the new Roman "Imperium" were simply indescribable. The deafening cheers of the immense crowd which had been patiently waiting for many hours in front of Il Duce's official residence, for a long time prevented Signor Mussolini from continuing his address.

Similar scenes were witnessed everywhere throughout Italy where practically the entire population had assembled in national "roll call" to hear Il Duce's eagerly expected pronouncement which proclaimed the annexation of Abyssinia with the following words:

ALL KNOTS CUT BY THE SWORD

"Officers, non-commissioned officers and soldiers of all the armed forces in Africa and Italy. Black-shirts of the Revolution. Italian men and women at home and abroad, hear my words. The great event takes place through the decisions which have been approved by the Grand Fascist Council and which you will now hear in a few minutes.

"The fate of Abyssinia is sealed to-day on May 9 in the 14th year of the Fascist regime. All knots have been cut by the sword.

FOURTEEN-YEAR AIM

"The Fascist victory will have a permanent place in Italian history. Italy at last has its Imperium which is a Fascist Imperium, for it bears the unmistakable marks of the Roman forces.

"This was the aim on whose attainment all the strength of the Italian nation was concentrated for 14 years: an empire of peace. For Italy wants peace for herself and for others. She goes to war only if she is forced to do so by hostile powers.

WILL OF ROME

"We will create an empire of civilization for all humanity and for all the tribes of Abyssinia because this is the will of Rome and our historical mission. A broad gap has now been opened into the future.

"I proclaim: Abyssinia and that tribes of Abyssinia are from to-day placed under the full and unrestricted sovereignty of the Italian Empire. The King of Italy assumes the title of Emperor of Abyssinia.

"The Italian nation itself has won its empire in battle. It will hold and defend it with armed forces against all enemies."

Transocean News Service.

FUTURE RULE

Rome, May 9. The Fascist Grand Council met at 10 p.m. after which the Cabinet met for three minutes.

Signor Mussolini then made a speech to a huge crowd, and announced an official decree placing the Empire of Ethiopia under the full and entire sovereignty of Italy. "Abyssinia will be ruled by a Governor-General with the title of Viceroy and the Governors of Eritrea and Somalia will be under him.

Marshal Badoglio will be Viceroy of Abyssinia."

Reuter.

EMPIRE OF PEACE

Rome, May 9. Signor Mussolini in the course of his speech said that Italy has at last got her empire which bears indelible signs of determination and power of the Roman emblem. It is an empire of peace because Italy wants peace for herself and all, "but we shall defend it against anyone who opposes us with arms," he said.

"This empire is the goal to which for fourteen years the eruptive energies of the young generation of Italy has been disciplined. This is the tradition of Rome which, after conquering, associated the defeated peoples with her destiny.

IMMENSE DOORWAY

"The closes the period of our history and opens another with an immense doorway towards the possibilities of the future. Will you be worthy of it?" he asked. There was a roar of assent from the crowd.

Signor Mussolini said that "this cry was like a great oath which binds you before God and men to life or death."

The crowd throughout the speech showed such frantic enthusiasm that Il Duce hardly made one sentence without interruption with bursts of applause.

Reuter.

ALOISI TO OBJECT?

Rome, May 9. King Victor Emmanuel has assumed the title of Emperor immediately.

It is noteworthy that in Signor Mussolini's speech he did not mention the League or other powers with interests in Abyssinia.

It is presumed that Baron Aloisi will refuse to discuss the Abyssinian question at Geneva on Monday. He will deny the right of Wolde Marian, as a "subject" of the new Emperor to appear at Geneva, and he will claim that he alone represents Abyssinia.

MINOR POWERS DISTURBED

London, May 10.

Officials all over the world greet Signor Mussolini's proclamation with every reserve and everywhere they are reluctant to comment.

"That was what we expected," was the only comment of Mr. Eden's entourage before leaving for Geneva.

NEW DANGERS

Berlin, May 10.

Official circles here decline to comment, declaring that Germany preserved a neutral attitude throughout and this has not changed.

The "Berliner Tageblatt" says that it is a big fantasy of fate that a Caesarian title should return to life, not in Rome nor Byzantium but in Africa. By Il Duce's act Africa has moved nearer Europe, creating new questions and new dangers.

GENEVA SPECULATION

Speculation is rife as to what the powers are likely to do, specially Britain and France. It is felt that France, though she has been willing to some extent to turn a blind eye to Italy's aggression, never contemplated such a radical result. All the minor states are disturbed to an alarming degree.

POISON GAS IN WARFARE

Right To Use As Reprisal

ITALIAN ATTITUDE

Geneva, May 9.

The Italian note to the League in reply to use of poison gas has been handed to the League under the signature of Signor Switch. The note stated that by the Geneva protocol of 1925 Italy was one of the signatories which renounces the use of poison gas in war, but the note pointed out that the protocol has no legal aspects when poison gas is used as a reprisal as Italy maintains that their use of gas was a reprisal for Abyssinian atrocities. The note added that neither the Committee of Thirteen nor any other League Committees have power over the 1925 protocol.

Italy suggests that the accusations of both sides be submitted to arbitration by an international organ such as the International Red Cross.

Reuter's Bulletin Service.

ALLEGED ATROCITIES

Transocean News Service adds: The Italian Government reiterates its assurance that it intends to abide by the provisions of the protocol, but that it cannot admit that the protocol excludes the right of retaliation for the purpose of suppressing atrocities of such an abominable character as have been committed by the Abyssinian troops.

The note goes on to say: "A Government responsible for such atrocities, which are unthinkable in civilized countries, has shown that the humanitarian spirit from which all the conventions and rules of warfare derive is alien to it." By having been the first to violate the conventions and usages of warfare Abyssinia has forfeited the right of appealing to these conventions.

CONDITIONS AT ADDIS ABABA

Restoring Orderly Government

Addis Ababa, May 9.

The Italians are vigorously grappling with the task of restoring orderly government. The distracted capital city is divided into four wards, each with their headquarters manned by 70 Carabinieri, 30 frontiersmen, the latter picturesque, armed, and Customs guards, who served in the war as infantry.

The Carabinieri are methodically searching the native houses and removing all obviously looted property and arresting its possessors. In the former town hall are Carabinieri officers receiving streams of Ethiopians voluntarily surrendering their arms—swords, bayonets, daggers and all descriptions of guns, ranging from flintlocks, almost museum pieces, to brand-new Mausers and machine-guns.

The lower rooms are sheltering a huddled crowd of Ethiopians of all ages and conditions awaiting judgment, which is not likely to be severe, as most of them are only accused of secreting loot.

The Carabinieri are confronted with disputes worthy of Solomon between rival claimants for looted property. Others caught apparently red-handed contend that they were merely removing their own property.

BURIED PROPERTY

Reuter's correspondent saw 6,000 thalers recovered from a hole in the floor of a native hut. The recovered property ranges from sewing-machines to suitcases and is piled high and piggy in the town hall.

Brigands and disbanded soldiery who fled from the capital are now infesting the countryside. They attacked an ambulance, killing the driver, and inflicting wounds on the remainder of the staff. They burned to the ground a large modern hotel 30 miles from the capital and threw the German proprietor and his wife from the windows, compelling the woman to strip and surrender her clothing.

After defending the Bank of Ethiopia for several days with 30 Askaris armed with old 1890 rifles, the manager, Mr. Wright, reached an agreement with the Italians whereby he is reopening the bank to-day. The resources of the bank, amounting to 1,500,000 thalers, are reported to have been placed at the disposal of the Italians.

Mohammed Ali's Indian Store, which alone among the large shops put up a successful defence, keeping the huge stocks in the building intact, is now besieged by purchasers and has practically sold out.

PALACE LOOTED

Just before the Negus departed he ordered the inhabitants to defend the city against the Italians, saying: "I give to you the contents of the palace for your own homes." The Ethiopians looted the palace thoroughly. Incidentally 30,000 thalers were found under a sofa. They used their arms mainly for brigandage and shot the Emperor's three favourite lions.

The Germans had a tough job defending the legation. They actually bought machine-guns from the attackers at pistol-point and then drove off their assailants with their own weapons.

A British subject Dr. Impey, of the British hospital, which also held out thanks to the gallantry of the staff, states: "In the last few days we have been operating all day long and fighting all night long."

A sorrowful arrival at the German Legation was a German drugist, celebrated throughout Ethiopia as a wonder-worker. He amassed a valuable business, but was left with only the clothes he was wearing. The looters ransacked his famous shop, leaving a solitary bottle of castor-oil behind.

BRITISH QUESTIONNAIRE REACTIONS

Berlin Press Criticises The Document

ENDEAVOUR TO DRAW GERMANY INTO A "DANGEROUS NET"

(Hong Kong Daily Press Special)

Berlin, May 10.

The British questionnaire handed in here on Thursday finds more undivided approval in France than in England opines the "Berliner Tageblatt" which discovers the reason for this phenomenon and the two following references to the League of Nations pertaining to the questionnaire:

1. That the British Government feels justified in assuming that the question of conformity proposed in the non-aggression pacts with obligations of the League members will present no difficulties and that these pacts will be consummated within the framework of the League Covenant.

2. That the British Government is sure Germany will deem it advisable to furnish further explanation concerning the words "separation of the League Covenant from its Versailles basis."

Both these allusions to the League, according to the paper, give expression to the aims of French policy which does not desire to dissociate the League from Versailles and which is bent on bringing all the European participants within the framework of the Covenant.

The "Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" criticises the British attitude towards the Franco-Soviet Pact as revealed in the questionnaire and says that although this pact is directed against Germany, yet the British document by questions contained in it, endeavours to draw Germany into this "dangerous net."

Moreover, says the paper, the questionnaire creates the impression that Britain attaches greater value to collective pacts of a universalist nature than to an effort to obtain a practical solution of concrete individual problems.

Transocean News Service.

GERMAN CRITICISM

Berlin, May 9.

Several German newspapers severely criticise the wording of the British questionnaire on the nature of its questions and especially its sudden publication which took Germany by surprise.

The "Frankfurter Zeitung" declares that the German Government cannot be expected to nail itself down in a happy-go-lucky way as such questionnaires may easily lead into a blind alley.

The "Hamburger Fremdenblatt" says that the questions are so complicated that the German reader needs enlightening footnotes.

CRAIGENGOWER'S GREAT DAY AT BOWLS

Second Treble Win Of Season

K. C. C. ALSO IN LIMELIGHT

Craigengower Cricket Club continued in their winning streak on Saturday when the club scored their second "treble" win of the season in the lawn bowls leagues. Both the teams in the senior division are as yet unbeaten and if the "B" team can retain their present form the "A" will have to play better bowls to ward off their second string's challenge.

Saturday's results came out very much as expected with the exception of the surprise win of the Police over the Recreation junior while the Electricians' defeat at the hands of the Foot-balls second string was also unexpected. In the senior division Craigengower "A," "B," Civil Service, Recreation and Kowloon Cricket Club won while Craigengower, Kowloon Bowling Green, Police, Kowloon Cricket Club and Football Club "B" were victors in the Junior division.

Several heavy defeats were noticed on Saturday. J. Deakin's Civil Service four trounced A. O. Madar's rink (I.R.C.) by 21 shots after leading 18-0 on the eighth head, while Adam Holland's rink was heavily defeated by Luz's four (A. E. Coates, A. A. Razack and D. Rumjahn) by 19 shots.

Two sevens were scored by W. V. Field's four (J. W. Leonard, H. W. Randall and A. M. Omar) which quartette incidentally won by 19 shots also. Only three sixes were scored, and these were by R. Phillips' rink, N. Drummond's four and the rink skip-ped by A. Hyde-Lay.

END OF SEASON FOOTBALL

Club Show Belated Form

In their last game of the season, the Hong Kong Football Club struck belated form to vanquish the East Lancers by four goals to one, three of which were claimed by T. A. Pearce. Although not the runners-up of the Senior Division League Table, the Club may look back on a in some ways satisfying season outstanding performances of which were their victories over South China "A", South China "B" and the Chinese Athletic. Yesterday's game was a complete reversal of form to their Saturday's encounter when they went down to the Navy by the odd goal in five.

In the only other game played on Saturday, the Fusiliers defeated the R.A. Lyemmun, the result being in no way a surprise. It is interesting to note that the Lyemmun side was the team that put the Club out of the running for the runners-up position by a sensational defeat some weeks ago!

PEARCE'S "HAT TRICK"

YESTERDAY'S GAME

Club Win Last Match

Playing what was probably one of the last two football matches of the season the Club met the East Lancers in their first division encounter at the Club ground yesterday and walked away with the game with the score of four goals to one.

It was a very one-sided affair, the Club showing remarkable good form, and was in fact all over a disconnected Lancers' team. The soldiers were only able to score one goal which goal, besides being very much against the run of the game, was scored by one of the Club's defenders.

The Club kicked off and without a single player of the Lancers touching the ball, took it down the left wing in a fine movement of understanding and precision and Hynes scored along the ground.

The soldiers retaliated and Hynes again scored, but this time from the other end of the field. Sandford shot and the ball hit the upright and rebounded into play. On the rebound, Hynes was on the ground put out his foot and neatly lifted the ball over his own goalkeeper's head to equalise for the Lancers.

LEFT WING DANGEROUS

Once again the Club were off on the left wing, which incidentally was their most dangerous part of the team, and in a movement which inspired Backford, E. Strange and T. A. Pearce, the ball was taken down to the soldiers' goal, and a narrow margin fumbled. The ball was either bouncing on or over the line, but no signal came from the linesman and the referee ruled that no goal had been scored.

The Lancers, nearly took the lead through Sandford who receiving the ball from the left wing did not connect properly with his foot and Roger punched clear.

Pearce in the meantime had been indulging in some long shots and he succeeded in this when with a shot that bounced just before Harmsworth who was unsighted, scored for the Club.

This set-back had the effect of inspiring the Soldiers to a renewed attack and in as many minutes several shots went near to registering. The most dangerous of these was a left-footer from Smith on the right wing.

The Club's third goal was decisive. Pearce had the ball from Lammert on the right and being only about five yards out gave the goal a chance with a pile driver. The teams changed over with the score at 3-1 in the Club's favour.

OPEN GOAL MISSED

The second half was not so interesting as the first, most of the play was in midfield. One exciting moment was when Crooke, inside left for the Lancers, took a hurried shot at the Club goal with Roger wandering around the outside edge of the penalty area and the two backs hurried trying to cover the empty goal, but unfortunately for the Lancers, the shot went wide.

Towards the end of the game the Club's goal again came in for some more hectic moments. Three shots in rapid succession found Roger again standing outside his goal and it was Nichols, who by performing the "splits" saved a certain goal.

LOCAL BASEBALL

Friendly Matches Played

MANY HOME RUNS SCORED

Two games in the nature of practice matches in preparation for the official opening of the baseball season next Sunday, took place on the Caroline Hill Ground yesterday, when the Eastern Baseball outfit crossed bats with the Hong Kong Volunteers, and the Canadians entertained the local Japanese team.

There was a large crowd present, who occupied precarious seats on the grassed slopes overlooking the home base and field. In spite of the seating accommodation which left much to be desired, the crowd (including a number of the fair sex) showed keen enthusiasm, which should act as a beneficial stimulant to local baseball.

During the morning, Mr. Muir, president of the local association received a cablegram in Chinese from the Peking College baseball outfit of Canton, stating their willingness to participate in the local league. Thus with the old South China baseball outfit entering the league as the "Overseas Chinese," there is every likelihood of two Chinese teams being in the league.

Full participants in the league will thus be: Americans (League holders) Canadians, Japanese, Overseas Chinese, U.S. Navy, Eastern and Hong Kong Volunteers.

YESTERDAY'S PLAY

In a game commencing at 9.30 a.m. the Volunteers defeated Eastern by nine runs to four. Leonard (ex-American Club) and J. Hussian homered for the winners while K. Nazarin hit a home run for the losers. More than half of the Eastern side is composed of Indian Recreation Club cricketers, which goes to show the versatility of this club's side.

In the second game of the morning, the Canadians were trounced by the Japanese by 22 runs to four in a five innings match. Thirteen of the winners' runs were obtained in the first innings, when the Canadians were responsible for innumerable fielding errors that saw the "rippy" Nipponese take full advantage. Although the Canadians only scored four runs, three of these were home runs! Muir first up to bat for the Kanukers sent the ball over the far side of the field with his initial swipe to romp home at leisure. Heather and G.E.R. Divett were the other two to get homers. Divett it will be recalled played for the original Volunteer's side that did so well years ago.

This Sunday the official baseball season will open with a clash between the Canadians and the Japanese. ed by Rodger at the expense of a corner. From the resultant kick the ball was kept in play in front of the Club's stand until Spencer glided the ball past Rodger to obtain his "hat trick."

The closing minutes of play saw E. Strange run through and with a low shot beat the advancing Naval custodian.

Club—G. Rodger; F. Nicholls, E. Strange; Skinner, Forrow, Robertson; Pearce, Brown, Elliot, E. Strange and Backford.

Navy—Wratton; Nicholson, Hills; Clarkson, Wilde, Tufnell; Baxter, McLeod, Spencer, Gauld and Wearmouth.

Junior Division

CLUB ROUTED BY FUSILIERS

The Fusiliers junior team completely routed the Club on Saturday at the Valley by 11 goals to one. Singleton was in great form and obtained eight of the winners' goals, the other scorers being: Sullivan, Roberts and Bumster.

Flaher replied for the Club. As a result of their victory, the Fusiliers are in a challenging position for the runners-up berth in the Second Division.

GEN. BARTHOLOMEW PAYS VISITS

Sees Mr. H. E. Arnold And The Italian Ambassador

Shanghai, May 8.
Major-General A. W. Bartholomew, General Officer Commanding the British Troops in China, accompanied by his A.D.C., Lieut. P. J. Howorth, paid two official calls yesterday and also inspected the British Military Barracks in Mohawk Road and the British Military Hospital in Central Road. He was accompanied by Brigadier F. S. Thackeray, Commanding the British Forces in the Shanghai Area, on all his visits except when he called on the Italian Ambassador, Signor Lojano, in the afternoon.

At 10 o'clock Major-General Bartholomew called on Mr. H. E. Arnold, Chairman of the Shanghai Municipal Council. Next he visited the British Military Barracks in Mohawk Road and finally the British Military Hospital, where he was met by Lieut. Col. A. C. Elliott, Commanding Officer. Last night he dined with the officers of the 1st Bn. The Lancashire Fusiliers. Major-General Bartholomew probably will sail for Tientsin on May 9. (N.C.D.N.)

STRAIGHT SPEAKING BY GEN. CHIANG

Praise And Condemnation For Provinces Visited

RICH ESCAPE LABOURS OF THE POOR

Nanking, May 5.
"The most vivid impression I gathered from my recent trip to Szechuan, Kweichow, and Yunnan, was that the people of the three provinces no longer present a haggard and griefed appearance. This is a grateful sign and shows that political progress is being achieved," said General Chiang Kai-shek after he returned here from his 28-day tour of six central and western provinces, including Hupeh, Szechuan, Yunnan, Kweichow, Hunan, and Kiangsi.

He considered the headway made in the opium suppression campaign as the greatest progress in Yunnan, Kweichow, and Szechuan. Not only had the provincial authorities succeeded in banning poppy planting and opium smoking, but many addicts automatically had cured themselves of the habit. As a result of the conversion of poppy fields into farmlands, there had been increased agricultural production and the livelihood of the peasants had been improved.

Rapid progress also had been achieved in communications and reconstruction. While admitting that political progress has been made, he thought there still was room for improvement. Greater care should be exercised in the selection of magistrates, and public education should be further promoted. The organization of militia corps and the training of the masses also warranted the attention of the local authorities.

The greatest negligence had been found in the development of land resources, afforestation work, river dredging, and promotion and development of people's economy. He exhorted local authorities to take steps to ameliorate the situation. Gen. Chiang also was satisfied with the compulsory labour service system now being undertaken in the three provinces.

The greatest defect he found was that all the labourers drafted belonged to the poor class, while the well-to-do failed to contribute their service. He asked that this be immediately corrected.

The absence of public health facilities in Szechuan, Yunnan, and Kweichow also came under criticism. Several districts in Yunnan and Kweichow, he discovered, do not even have drug stores. Since public health is directly concerned with the promotion of public defence, and the people's livelihood, such a deplorable situation should be bettered.

As to local administration, Gen. Chiang admitted that the machinery was working smoothly. Nevertheless, he saw one great defect, and that was that the work so far done was impracticable. Furthermore, there was no co-ordination and little efficiency.

In his opinion, control and management were equally essential. By control he meant constant inspection and supervision, with the object of attaining public order and discipline. By management, he meant well worked out plans, with special emphasis on the order of execution of various projects. All these should be carefully taken up by political workers, especially administrative inspectors and magistrates. (Central News.)

LONG DISTANCE CALLS

Hangchow, May 3.
Installation of long-distance telephone equipment between Hangchow and Nanchang, respectively provincial capitals of Chekiang and Kiangsi, has been completed. After preliminary tests are made and found satisfactory, the service will be opened to the public. (Kuo Min.)

BRITISH BOXER TRUSTEES

$200,000 For Completion Of Hwai River Docks

Shanghai, May 6.
The 34th Meeting of the Board of Trustees for the Administration of the British Boxer Indemnity was held yesterday at Chekiang University, Hangchow. Members present were Messrs. Chu Chia-hua, R. Calder-Marshall, Yen Te-ching, T. K. Tseng, Yoh Kung-cho, J. Heng Liu, Chen Chih-pai, Tseng Yang-fu, W. S. King, H. V. Wilkinson and K. Canlie. Mr. Han Lih-wu, Director of the Office was also present.

The Chairman, Dr. Chu Chia-hua, after the opening of the meeting, presented the Order of the Brilliant Jade conferred by the Chinese Government, to Mr. R. Calder-Marshall, in recognition of the services rendered by Mr. Calder-Marshall in promoting Sino-British relations, especially in connection with the work of the Board of Trustees of which he has been Vice-Chairman for the last four years.

Among the matters discussed at the meeting were the following:
1. The request of the Kwangtung River Conservancy Commission for a loan of $300,000 for flood prevention operations at Pakong. It was resolved to send an expert to make actual investigation on the spot and submit a report which will be considered by the Technical and Finance Sub-Committees.

2. Request of the Hwai River Commission for the remittance of about $200,000 for the completion of the three locks. This request was passed.

3. It was resolved to request Mr. Yoh Kung-cho to make a thorough examination into the question of the future unification of administration as well as matters of accountability of the Canton-Hankow Railway after completion of the entire line.

4. Contract for a loan of $250,000 for the purchase of materials for the Canton-Hankow Railway was approved.

5. The following officers were re-elected for another term of office: Vice-Chairman—Mr. R. Calder-Marshall, Board-Secretary—Dr. Yen Te-ching, Board-Treasurer—Mr. Tseng Yang-fu (T. K. Tseng). (N.C.D.N.)

CONSUL'S QUEER BEHAVIOUR

ASSAULT AND ABUSIVE LANGUAGE

Nanking, May 3.

Great surprise is expressed here at the reported conduct of Mr. H. I. Harding, British Consul at Kunming (Yunnan), who is alleged to have injured three boy scout leaders on April 25 by hitting them with a walking stick.

Official action will be taken by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs as soon as a detailed report of the incident is received from Mr. Wang Chian-chi, Special Commissioner of Foreign Affairs for Yunnan.

According to a report received from Kunming, the incident arose when a group of boy scouts of the Provincial King Hain Junior Commercial School, after a drill at the North Gate, requested permission to pay a visit to the British Garden.

The request was made at the gate of the Garden by Messrs. Yang Pin-chin and Ma Yun-yung, two scoutmasters, and an American instructor. At the time, Mr. Harding was in the Garden, with two police dogs.

ABUSIVE

Seeing Mr. Harding, the three scout leaders approached him to make a personal request. To their amazement, however, the British Consul replied in abusive language, and, without provocation, beat them up with his walking stick. The right arm of Yang Pin-chin was seriously hurt and Ma Yun-yung and the American instructor also sustained bodily injuries.

Without retreating, the three scouts immediately went to a local hospital, where their wounds were dressed and certified.

An attempt to justify his action was made by Mr. Harding subsequently when he called on Mr. Wang Chian-chi, the Special Commissioner of Foreign Affairs, on April 25. Mr. Harding did not deny that he had used abusive language towards the scouts, but claimed that his action was "entirely proper."

It is learnt that the American scout instructor, one of the victims of Mr. Harding's extraordinary behaviour, will request the American Consulate at Yunnanfu to lodge a protest with the British authorities. (Kuo Min.)

AMERICAN SILVER PURCHASES

Washington, May 8.
The Treasury needs 730,000,000 ounces of silver in addition to the stocks visibly held on April 30, to complete the requirements of its silver programme, according to official figures made public to-day.

The visible Treasury holdings on April 30 were 1,910,000,000 ounces, valued at 2,465 billion dollars, or an increase of somewhat less than 23,000,000 ounces for April.

In addition, the Treasury may have silver in the Stabilisation Fund, in transit, or stored abroad, so it is pointed out by observers that the purchase of a large amount of Chinese silver, as a result of the current negotiations, might well advance the purchasing programme to the verge of completion.

BERLIN SHARE MARKET

Confident Outlook Prevails

("Hong Kong Daily Press" Special)

Berlin, May 10.

An official statement of the Reichs Finance Ministry, showing that the state of the last financial year had increased by 1.4 milliard marks, was the chief immediate cause of the confident outlook that stimulated buying on the share market, but as the general price level is now almost as high as can be expected, no profit taking has set in and has acted as a corrective.

Fixed Interest securities were quiet except as regards foreign bonds, nevertheless Selmsens thousand-year bonds rose 3 to 172 and Dye Trust bonds rose 4 to 135 1/2. Call Money was 2 1/2, no change took place during the week in the State money market, an exceedingly fluid condition continuing, short term money seeking utilization in the Reichs Treasury interest bearing bonds.

After a strong upward movement on the share market last week, a setback occurred, but was followed by another general recovery towards the week-end so that price levels were slightly higher at the close than at the beginning of the week, but the comparative moderation of this movement and its continuous character shows that the rumours of the impending devaluation of reichsmarks so often denied officially, finds no credence in investing circles. The substantial rise in share prices in the past few months, on the other hand, indicates the strengthening of confidence based on purely economic considerations.

The complete stagnation of the fixed interest securities market of the last few months giving rise to a demand for a gesture from official quarters. Meanwhile the Reichs old liquidation loan movement has been moving steadily upwards as the date for the lottery approaches.

FRIDAY'S POSITION

Berlin, May 8.
The shares were again very eagerly sought, especially by banks, buying on account of small investors, who had hitherto been exceedingly cautious because of the uncertainties in the international situation. Fixed Interest Securities were neglected, but prices remained steady. Call Money stood at 3 per cent.

Now is the time to visit Australia & New Zealand lands of Sunshine and Romance. "Down Under" you will feel a new being and even if you are not inclined towards Surfing, Fishing, Shooting or Mountaineering you will find that the Antipodes have plenty to offer you—including 25° for your pound!

On the way down your life aboard will be as you wish, quiet or hectic for the E. & A. will honour your every whim.

And by the way, there is no additional charge for Deck Cabins and there is of course a Sun Deck, swimming pool, an Orchestra and a fine Laundry.

A Surgeon and Stewardess are at your disposal and last but not least—we had almost forgotten—the cuisine will set you listening eagerly for the Gong.

Regular monthly sailings from Hong Kong to Shanghai and Japan and Hong Kong to Australia.
